About ICF

We are local – all ICF Board Directors and staff are Idaho residents.

Three ICF offices:

- Boise
- Coeur d'Alene
- Idaho Falls

ICF's Boise Office

How Does ICF Help Idaho?

ICF is Idaho's only statewide community foundation. We distribute grants to all 44 Idaho counties.

- 2nd largest grant maker in Idaho
- Nearly $120 million in distributions since 1991
- $7.5 million in grants and community improvements in 2018
- We manage 620 charitable funds and have assets of $171.2 million

ICF grant recipient
Teach for America

Regional Impact

Forever Idaho Grants

- Three regional grant cycles each year
- Highly flexible to support a variety of projects

Idaho Future Fund Grants

Board Representation

Volunteer Grant Reviewers

Membership

How does ICF help build communities?

Our roles:

- Community Leader
- Effective Grantmaker
- Charitable Steward

McCall nonprofit roundtable

Community Conversations

Purpose

- Listen and learn
- Inform ICF decision making
- Spread public knowledge to ICF's broad network

Hagerman Elementary School received more than $16,000 from the Idaho Future Fund to update its library.

Community Conversations Summary

Community Conversations

Statewide trends:

- Lack of affordable housing
- Poor access to mental health care and addiction recovery services
- Workforce development (pipeline of graduates with skills needed to fill local jobs)
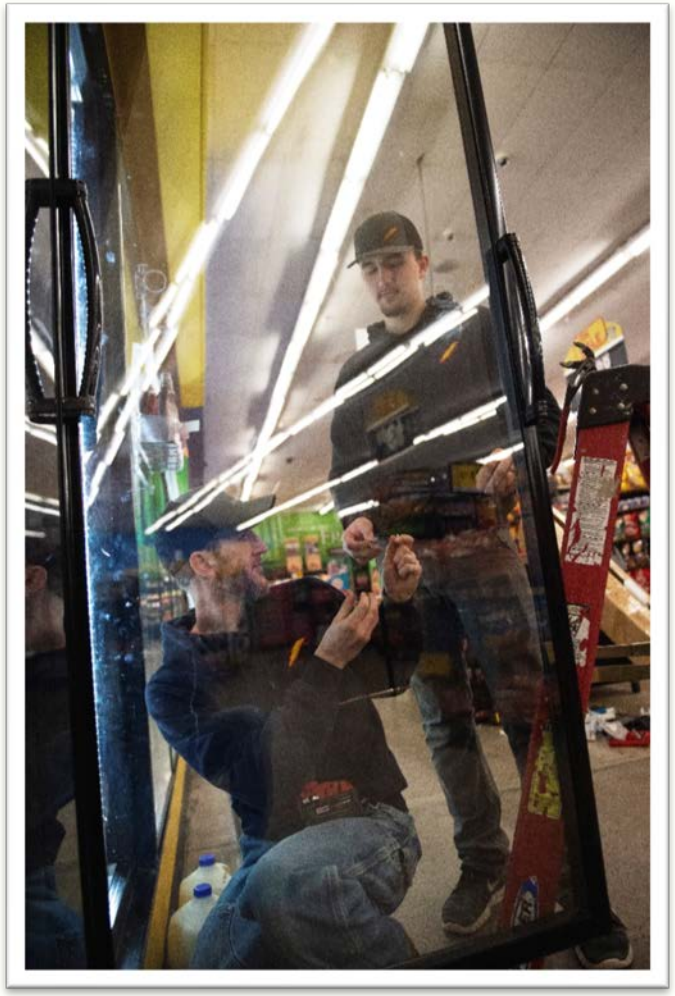
- Transportation and access to services



Workforce development program funded by Chobani

Facilitating Community Conversations

- Curated or Open Invitation?
- Location?
- Program Content
- Engagement
- Follow Up

ICF's Magic Valley Mixer

Partners

Community leaders

Subject matter experts

ICF donors, members, board

Nonprofit and community organizations

Impact Investing Forum in Ketchum

Lessons Learned and Next Steps

Facilitation matters

Resident engagement –
Which voices were missing?

Follow up is important

Community roundtables

ICF Southwest Idaho Luncheon

Idea Generation

What are some of the roles libraries can play?

Who are likely partners?

What themes or topics might you propose?

How will this serve the library's mission?

Bear Lake School District Library

Thank You!

Karen Bilowith, karen@idahocf.org

(208) 342-3535

www.idahocf.org

IDAHO COMMUNITY FOUNDATION