Revised October 2007

What is the Talking Book Service?

The Idaho Commission for Libraries partners with the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped to provide reading material. If you cannot read regular print due to a physical condition such as blindness, this service is for you!

Who can use the Talking Book Service?

Idaho residents with one of the following temporary or permanent conditions:

- Legally Blind
- Visual disability
- Physical disability
- Reading disability due to an organic dysfunction

How much does The service cost?

It is completely FREE! The reading materials are funded by federal tax dollars, and the Idaho Commission for Libraries provides the staff.

What materials are available?

The collection contains more than 65,000 fiction and nonfiction recorded titles. You will also find recorded magazines, descriptive videos and books in Braille.

How do I select materials to read?

The application includes your reading interests and preferred authors. You can select materials from bi-monthly catalogs and work with trained reading advisors to help you select materials.

How do I play the recorded materials?

Special playback machines required to listen to reading materials are lent to you free and are replaced as needed.

How do I return the materials to the library?

Mail your reading materials and equipment FREE through the United States Post Office.

STAFF'S PICKS!

Terri's Pick

"Seabiscuit". This movie is based on a true story and is exceptional to say the least. It takes you through a full range of emotion with the underdog winning in the end. The casting is superb for this award winning movie. Starring Tobey Maguire as the jockey, Chris Cooper as the trainer, Jeff Bridges as the businessman, and of course the "undersized" racehorse.

Judy's Pick

"Pirates of the Caribbean: Curse of the Black Pearl". Here is a thrilling high-seas adventure with a mysterious twist. The roguish yet charming Captain Jack Sparrow's (played by Johnny Depp), idyllic pirate life capsizes after his nemesis, the wily Captain Barbossa, (Geoffrey Rush), steals his ship: "The Black Pearl" and attacks the town of Port Royal; kidnapping the Governor's beautiful daughter Elizabeth, (Keira Knightley). In a gallant attempt to rescue her and recapture the ship, Elizabeth's childhood friend Will Turner, (Orlando Bloom), joins forces with Jack. A cursed treasure and an undead crew round out this tale of high adventure, action, and mystery!

Loretta's Picks

Two very delightful DVS movies that I've watched have been "Big" and "Mrs. Doubtfire". In "Big", Tom Hanks (as a young boy) makes a harmless enough wish to be big. When he awakes as a 30 year old businessman, he is both surprised and pleasantly happy. What adventures ensue as he tries to pull off his new identity are a laugh a minute. In "Mrs. Doubtfire", Robin Williams dresses up as a British nanny and takes a job as a housekeeper (in his ex-wife's home) in order to spend more time with his children. If you enjoy comedies give these two a try. I recommend them!

Laurel's Picks

"Apollo Thirteen". I thoroughly enjoyed this movie about the space program. Although it was just a movie, it kept me riveted to my seat. Even though I knew how it ended I struggled with the astronauts and the ground crew through every crisis. The special effects of weightlessness made me feel I was there in space with them. It was indeed one of America's finest hours.

"To Kill a Mockingbird". Gregory Peck has always been a favorite actor of mine. He does a superb job of acting in the 1962 movie set in the Depression era South. Not only does he defend a black man against an undeserved rape charge, but he also teaches his children about prejudice. A great family movie!
