Coming in September

September 10th. Two free webinar sessions being offered by OCLC:

<http://tinyurl.com/22oeos4> This course helps cataloging and technical services managers contain costs, improve efficiency, and use staff resources most effectively by helping them take full advantage of the value of their OCLC cataloging subscription. It explains the OCLC cataloging interfaces, activities, and services that are included in the OCLC cataloging subscription. Participants will receive a checklist of next steps to help them select and implement services included in their cataloging subscription from which they are not yet deriving full benefit." Use the link above to register. Any questions, please inquire with OCLC at 800-848-5800.
