Dear Judges,

My ultimate dream is to eliminate bullying. I have gone through some very bad experiences with bullying and I know how harmful it can be on a child's life.

I came up with the pass it on effect. The pass it on effect is where at the beginning of your day, you do something nice for someone.

Then, all day, whenever someone does something nice for you, you then do something nice for someone else.

I took inspiration from multiple picture books. I looked at illustrations from Brian and Bob, Alice in Wonderland, and Multiple More. I chose to do a picture book to better people's understanding of the pass it on effect. Also to spread the word.

Ashton's MOM anddad always taught her to help others.

Her's biggest dream is to fill the world with love. She wants to do this by using the "pass it on" effect.

The "pass it on" effect is where you do something nice for someone, and then they do something nice for someone else. Like this ...

If Ashton opens the door for Josh ...

Then Josh would help
Jane cross the street.

Jane then donated $10 to the local homeless shelter.

Why should we "pass it on"?

Not only does it make others feel happy...

But it makes you feel happy too.

"passing it on" could really

change the world for the better.

If everyone "passed it on" at least once a day, we could get rid of bullies.

So tomorrow, 'don't forget to "pass it on" and make the world a better place.
