

Books to Action

Learn, Talk, Do

Library!

Want to discuss a great book and give back to your local community?
Join us for our very first Books to Action program!

Learn

We will be discussing Kristof & WuDunn's Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide. This book is available for checkout from the Library.

Talk

We are offering 2 book discussion opportunities. One will be at the downtown Library and the other will be at the Library! at Cole & Ustick. A synopsis will be available for those who would like to join the discussion but do not have time to read the book.

Do

What is the Action part? Participate in a companion service project at the Women's and Children's Alliance.
