Essay:

I chose the book "Poison Ink" because it's a drama induced book and it makes you want to get another book like it.

This book is about a Girl named Samantha (Sammi). Sammi has four best friends. These four girls are named Katsuko (also goes by Kat), Cayrin, Letty, And T.Q. Sammi and the girls decide they want a tattoo to represent their friendship. Letty says she knows a place where they can get a tattoo done without any questions being asked (Dante's Shop). They go to Dante's shop and tell him what they're looking for in the tattoo. Dante designs a tattoo that only they will have, it's unique, and it represents their friendship. Four of them get the tattoo. Sammi backs out and the girls turn their back on her and start acting differently. So Sammi starts to investigate why they're acting so strange. She searches through Dante's shop and finds a book that has the tattoo design in it. She finds out that, that tattoo is a ritual tattoo so now Dante has complete control of the girls. Sammi makes the decision to destroy the girls' tattoo.

The way the girls act in this story is why I choose to never trust someone even if I've been friends with them forever, You never really know what could happen to your friendship.
