

Competencies Supported by the Supplemental Alternative Basic Library Education Courses

Early Childhood Services Sequence

This course supports the following competencies for Early Childhood Services:

- Build and maintain a collection to meet the needs and interests of children, their families and caregivers in the community.
- Design and implement library services to meet the needs and interests of children, their families and caregivers in the community.
- Use online tools and resources to provide age-appropriate services to children.
- Connect children and their families and caregivers with resources that encourage reading. (WJ)

School-Aged Children Services Sequence

This course supports the following competencies for School-Aged Children Services:

- Build and maintain a collection to meet the needs and interests of children, their families and caregivers in the community.
- Design and implement library services to meet the needs and interests of children, their families and caregivers in the community.
- Use online tools and resources to provide age-appropriate services to children.
- Connect children and their families and caregivers with resources that encourage reading. (WJ)

Young Adult Services Sequence

This course supports the following competencies for Young Adult Services:

- Build and maintain a collection to meet the needs and interests of children, their families and caregivers in the community.
- Design and implement library services to meet the needs and interests of children, their families and caregivers in the community.
- Use online tools and resources to provide age-appropriate services to children.
- Connect children and their families and caregivers with resources that encourage reading. (WJ)

Competency Resources:

Competency Index for the Library Field, Compiled by WebJunction, updated 2014
Library Practitioner Core Competencies, Western Council of State Libraries

