Project or Team Name: Chloe's Unknown World

Book Title/Author: Neverwhere, by Neil Gaiman

Library Name: East Bonner County Library—Sandpoint, ID

Essay:

I chose this book because every word, page, and simple punctuation draws you into the unknown world of Neverwhere. This book took my mind captive not allowing it to look away as the tension grew. When Door came tumbling through the wall while Richard and his fiancé are walking, you fear for her life. Wondering if they will leave her to die, or take her making sure she is all right. The London Underground is where all of the people who have fallen through cracks are, and Richard is now one of them. The reason why I chose this book is all stated above, but the main reason is because it takes you to an unknown world full of infinite possibility.
