

Books are yummy!
Draw more yummy things
for Baby to eat!

If you want me to be ready to learn to read when I start school, here's what you can do with me every day:

- Read aloud with me for 15-20 minutes each day. You can get books at the library!
- Talk with me throughout the day. Use lots of interesting words, and ask me lots of questions.
- Sing songs and say rhymes with me. This helps me break down words into little parts.
- Do fingerplays with me, like Itsy Bitsy Spider. This will help my fingers be ready to hold a pencil.
- Play with me! Games and pretend play help me grow and learn, and I love it when you laugh with me!

A message from your local library and:

Idaho Commission for Libraries

INSTITUTE of Museum and Library SERVICES