

Family Book: Ten Best Idaho Places

Give each family member a sheet of construction paper and have each person describe the places in Idaho they have visited or lived. Attach a photo or draw a picture to illustrate the places. Punch holes, make a cover, and tie with pieces of yarn. Optional: Send a sheet to grandparents or other family members not living with you, and ask them to contribute, too!

Ten Best Idaho Places

List a place described by the following. Use lots of describing words to tell why.

Prettiest place:

Ugliest place:

Hottest place:

Coldest place:

Highest place:

Lowest place:

Driest place:

Greenest place:

Strangest place:

Most favorite place:

