

IDAHO FAMILY READING WEEK 2012

Snuggle up and read with your families this November 13-19 and celebrate the importance of literacy during Idaho Family Reading Week. Every publicly funded public and elementary school library will receive a CD filled with programming ideas, booklists, artwork, resources, and more.

In addition, the first 130 libraries to register their event will receive:

Three hardcover books for their collections

Paperbacks for families (amount depends on library size)

And Family Reading Week posters and branded canvas tote bags

Registration Open August 17 – November 2, 2012
