

FREE ONLINE RESOURCES FOR IDAHO RESIDENTS

Libraries Linking Idaho Databases (LiLI-D) at lili.org

LiLI connects Idaho residents with top-quality academic and professional resources, a readers advisory service, and a highly regarded encyclopedia. Over 35 databases offer full-text articles from magazines, professional journals, newspapers, reference books, and more. There's something for everyone:

- Students will find homework help and sources for academic research.
 - Consumers can access health and financial information.
 - Small businesses can review market research reports.
 - Entrepreneurs can take advantage of startup resources.
- ❖ $557,305 from the Commission's FY12 general fund appropriation.

LearningExpress Library (LEL) at lili.org/LearningExpress

LEL offers online Learning Centers for:

- Elementary, Middle, High School, and College students.
- GED Preparation, including prep courses and practice exams.
- College Preparation, including practice exams for Advanced Placement (AP), COMPASS, ASSET, CLEP, ACT, and SAT tests.
- Job Search and Workplace Skills, including resume writing, interviewing, and business writing courses and eBooks.
- Popular Software Tutorials, including Microsoft Office Courses.
- Professional licensing and certification test prep.

In addition, the Learning Centers include skill-building resources for adults; resources for Spanish speakers; and over 800 practice tests, skill-building courses, and eBooks.

- ❖ $120,000/year in the "online @ your library" budget, through October 2013 only.

Scout Video Collections at scout.lili.org

Scout includes:

- Scout, Classroom Edition—where Idaho teachers and students have immediate access to more than 14,000 research-based instructional resources, short videos, and animations.
 - Scout, Idaho Collection—with collections of online video resources about Idaho (Adventure, History, People & Culture, Places, Natural Resource Issues, Science, Wild Things, and Writers Collection) that include full, award-winning, local programs.
- ❖ Developed as part of "online @ your library," maintained and updated with new content by Idaho Public Television for 5 years.

Find more about these services at <http://libraries.idaho.gov> and <http://lili.org/>.

FREE ONLINE RESOURCES FOR IDAHO RESIDENTS

Maximize Your Job Search online workshop at labor.idaho.gov/jobsearch

Job search tools and resources available from the Idaho Department of Labor include:

- “Maximize Your Job Search” online workshop, a step-by-step guide to a better job search that includes video and audio tips from Idaho employers, emphasizing what they expect to see in a potential employee.
 - “Maximize Your Job Search” workbook, a 24-page printable guide to getting started—identifying skills, networking, the hidden job market, using social media, and more.
- ❖ Developed as part of “online @ your library,” incorporated into ongoing website maintenance.

Next Avenue at idahoptv.org/nextavenue

This website, available through Idaho Public Television, offers knowledge, wisdom, and inspiration to navigate life in the 50s and beyond, including information on:

- Health & Well Being.
- Money & Security.
- Work & Purpose.
- Living & Learning.
- Caregiving.

Users can find videos, articles, blogs, and tips; connect with others; and use the Next Avenue Toolbox to live life to the fullest after 50.

- ❖ Developed as part of “online @ your library,” incorporated into ongoing website maintenance.

Media online @ your library at media.lili.org

Media online @ your library is both an online and DVD guide on using the Internet to connect with Idaho news and media. Users can:

- Build Internet and computer skills.
 - Learn to use the Internet to be alert consumers of news and information.
- ❖ Developed as part of “online @ your library,” incorporated into ongoing website maintenance.

Find more about these services at <http://libraries.idaho.gov> and <http://lili.org/>.

online @ your library®

Idaho Commission for Libraries
325 West State Street • Boise, ID 83702
208-334-2150 • 800-458-3271
<http://libraries.idaho.gov>

The Idaho Commission for Libraries assists libraries to build the capacity to better serve their clientele.