

FREE ONLINE RESOURCES FOR IDAHO RESIDENTS

LearningExpress Library (LEL) at lili.org/LearningExpress

LEL offers online Learning Centers for:

- Elementary, Middle, High School, and College students.
- GED Preparation, including prep courses and practice exams.
- College Preparation, including practice exams for Advanced Placement (AP), COMPASS, ASSET, CLEP, ACT, and SAT tests.
- Job Search and Workplace Skills, including resume writing, interviewing, and business writing courses and eBooks.
- Popular Software Tutorials, including Microsoft Office courses.
- Professional licensing and certification test prep.

The Learning Centers also include skill-building resources for adults; resources for Spanish speakers; and hundreds of practice tests, courses, and eBooks.

Libraries Linking Idaho Databases (LiLI-D) at lili.org

LiLI connects Idaho residents with top-quality academic and professional resources, a readers advisory service, and a highly regarded encyclopedia. Over 35 databases offer full-text articles from magazines, professional journals, newspapers, reference books, and more. There's something for everyone:

- Students will find homework help and sources for academic research.
- Consumers can access health and financial information.
- Small businesses can review market research reports.
- Entrepreneurs can take advantage of startup resources.

Resources for Idaho Citizens at citizen.lili.org

Online portal provides Idahoans with access to online resources from Idaho Public Television and e-government resources offered by the State of Idaho. Users can access:

- Idaho in Session: Legislature Live (live, online video or audio of action in the Idaho State Legislature).
- Idaho in Session: Judiciary Live (live streaming of Idaho Supreme Court oral arguments in Boise).
- Statehouse virtual tours..
- Idaho Court Assistance Office and Self-Help center with free court-approved forms for civil matters.
- Transparent Idaho, from the Idaho State Comptroller, shows where money comes from and where it goes.
- [\[STACKS\]](#), the digital repository of public information published by the State of Idaho.

Media online @ your library at media.lili.org

Media online @ your library is both an online and DVD guide on using the Internet to connect with Idaho news and media. Users can:

- Build Internet and computer skills.
- Learn to use the Internet to be alert consumers of news and information.

FREE ONLINE RESOURCES FOR IDAHO RESIDENTS

Job search online workshops at labor.idaho.gov/jobsearch and Unemployment Insurance how-to videos at labor.idaho.gov/uivideos

Job search tools and resources from the Idaho Department of Labor include:

- “Maximize Your Job Search” online workshop, a step-by-step guide to a better job search with video and audio tips from Idaho employers, emphasizing what they expect to see in a potential employee.
- “Maximize Your Job Search” workbook, a 24-page printable guide to getting started—identifying skills, networking, the hidden job market, using social media, and more.
- Unemployment Insurance videos to help navigate the application process: how to file a claim and weekly report, what happens after filing, and how benefits are paid.

Next Avenue at idahoptv.org/nextavenue

This website, available through Idaho Public Television, offers knowledge and inspiration to navigate life in the 50s and beyond, including information on:

- Health & Well Being.
- Money & Security.
- Work & Purpose.
- Living & Learning.
- Caregiving.

Users can find videos, articles, blogs, and tips; connect with others; and use the Next Avenue Toolbox to live life to the fullest after 50.

Scout Video Collections at scout.lili.org

Scout includes:

- Scout, Classroom Edition—where Idaho teachers and students have immediate access to more than 14,000 research-based instructional resources, short videos, and animations.
- Scout, Idaho Collection—with collections of online video resources about Idaho (Adventure, Dialogue: Writers, History, People & Culture, Places, Natural Resource Issues, Science, and Wild Things) that include full, award-winning, local programs.

Social Media Kit for libraries at http://libraries.idaho.gov/files/Social-Media-Kit_final.pdf

The kit serves as the foundation by which libraries or organizations author their policies regarding social media—the specifics of which will be unique to individual situations. Intended to be a starting point for self-discovery—best practices, hints, and how-to’s are outlined.

online@your library®

Find more about these services at <http://libraries.idaho.gov> and <http://lili.org/>.