Leslie's time tested pragmatic tips were right on the mark for basic emergency book repair. She also shared several links to additional resources. With her permission I have posted the handout she gave out during the session.

ILA Memberships: Number of Members and Income by Division

(Members who paid January 1 through September 20)

	2012	2011
	Members	Members
Corporate	1	2
Academic	51	52
Ed Media	31	40
Public	181	138
Trustee	45	47
Totals:	309	279

Although over all membership is up, Ed. Media membership is down statewide.

ILA Membership Matters:

- Develop state and regional conferences.
- Legislative Lobbyist (ICfL can not do this.) ILA can.
- Partnerships = Resources (ICfL: Lili, School Impact Study, Webjunction at OCLC Online Computer Library Center)

Your Concerns: EBooks

Ubiquitous Computing: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Mlbuh3_ZKsE&feature=&p=29F92C58FECFAD78&index=0&playnext=1

- There is not a clear clean model.
 - Even if you take small steps – take some steps.
 - Promote and Partner with Local Public Libraries
 - Write Grants, Integrate Project Gutenberg (<http://www.gutenberg.org/>), Vendors: (Ebsco, Follett, Overdrive)
- Should you provide reading devices? (Yes)
- Will it benefit your patrons? (Yes, especially low & reluctant.)

Your Concerns: Common Core Standards

- Unless you came from a different state, this is new for everyone: teachers, principals, parents, school boards, and teacher/librarians. Everyone....
 - This is a perfect opportunity to demonstrate our value.
