

LIBRARY JOURNAL PRESENTS
LEAD THE CHANGE
LEADERSHIP EVENT SERIES

Empowering Individuals
Transforming Libraries
Enriching Communities

CHANGE IS COMING TO THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST OCT. 30

Lead the Change is your chance to attend a highly rated national leadership conference close to home. Lead the Change brings together library leaders and staff at every level for a motivating and informative day designed to energize, inspire and enlighten. Attendees will learn how today's top libraries are leading change and transforming their communities.

Attend individually or with your library's staff for a day of dynamic presentations, case studies, and conversations presented by B.A. David Company founder David Bendekovic and Library Journal, featuring librarians and thought leaders from around the country.

You'll walk away with insights, best practices, leadership tools and best of all, your own unique action plan, empowering you to transform your library and enrich your community.

REGISTER TODAY >

October 30, 2012
The Seattle Public Library
Central Library
1000 Fourth Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104-1109

"Lead the Change has given me new insight into who I am and what I offer to my library's future"
—A. Mendelsohn, Senior Librarian, Youth Services,
Los Angeles Public Library

"This is one of the best workshops I've ever attended"
—T. LeBeau, Assistant Director, Livermore Public Library

LEAD THE CHANGE
PACIFIC NORTHWEST SPEAKERS

	BILL PTACEK Library Director King County Library System
	MARCELLUS TURNER City Librarian, Seattle Public Library

CONNECT WITH LEAD THE CHANGE:

DIAMOND SPONSOR

GOLD SPONSORS

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH LIBRARYJOURNAL

