

Library BINGO: "Be Innovative: Nab Great Outcomes"

Create a new Facebook page for your teen program	Check out an unknown database or resource on lili.org	Create a new booktrailer for TRW	Partner with a new community organization for an event	Screen an "unknown" film during October
Host a "seek the unknown" scavenger hunt	Teen creates report on a new book (unknown genre)	Create a teen program you have not tried before	Create a teen advisory group at your library	Teen volunteers one hour at the library
Create a "Seek the Unknown" display for TRW	Teen posts on TRW to a Facebook page	Free	Post one update & three pictures on your FB page	Write a blog for ICfL on TRW programming
Host an outreach program at the local school	Tweet at least five times about TRW (library or teen)	Partner with a school on one TRW program at the library	Teen creates READ poster on a new book	Host a "Maker" program for teens
Utilize READ Design Studio to market TRW (window clings...)	Host a technology petting zoo or Gizmo Garage (contact Sue)	Submit teen-written report on TRW activities	Contact local press to market TRW activities	Create a TRW pinterest & share through social media

Rules

Libraries must:

1. Register for TRW through Survey Monkey by September 27, 2013.
2. Register for TRW through ALA to document Idaho's participation in this national initiative by September 27, 2013.
3. Host TRW events during the month of October.
4. Highlight the squares on the BINGO card that you completed.
5. Submit proof or documentation of each BINGO square completed and your BINGO card to Erica Compton by November 8, 2013.
6. Complete the Final Report at the end of TRW by November 8, 2013.

Participation Materials

- 2-3 Teen Read Week Posters
- 25-50 Teen Read Week Bookmarks
- 1 Teen Read Week Manual
- Teen Flash Drives with content to help teens complete relevant BINGO squares, current YA lit information, and more!

