Book Title/Author: Little Women by Louisa May Alcott

Library Name: Marshall Public Library

Essay:

I chose this book because every time I read it the story becomes mine. Pip, Beth's bird, and the cats become my little pets. I felt the sadness of losing the white cat, Mrs. Snowball Pat paw. During the few times she is mentioned I have grown to love her and I was very much troubled when she disappeared. Dear Great Aunt March has often tried my patience. When Beth first becomes sick and then dies my eyes are red and swollen from all of my crying. When I think of the dear old piano my eyes immediately become wet and my heart is filled with deep sorrow. I love Jo's poem In the Garret because very simply it tells the story of the little women. I also love Jo's poem, MY BETH, as every word in it rings true. I love Little Women because I feel part of the story. It is a living book.
