

Routes to Reading Books to Go Library Partner Survey

Instructions: We would like to thank you for partnering with your public library this year in the Books to Go program. The program is supported by the Idaho Commission for Libraries (ICfL), a state agency devoted to supporting all public libraries in Idaho. In order to assess the quality of the Books to Go program and to learn about possible improvements, we ask you to complete the following survey. The information you provide is anonymous, meaning that your responses can not be traced to who said them. We do, however, provide the option at the end of the survey for you to include your contact information if you are willing to be contacted for further follow-up regarding the Books to Go program. Your doing so is entirely voluntary and if you choose to be contacted then your responses will no longer be anonymous, but will remain confidential, meaning we will never identify a respondent. We want to thank you in advance for completing the survey. You can mail surveys to ICfL, 325 W State St., Boise ID 83702, give them to your library partner with your checkout sheets from the binder, or complete the questions online at <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/BTGPartnerSurvey>.
