Idaho Commission for Libraries

The Idaho Commission for Libraries has coordinated Let's Talk About It since 1985 in partnership with the Idaho Humanities Council. The Commission provides project staff, administers the project funds, and houses the Let's Talk About It book collection.

Address: Ann Joslin, State Librarian, Idaho Commission for Libraries, 325 W. State St., Boise, ID 83702. <http://libraries.idaho.gov>

The Idaho Humanities Council is a private, non-profit organization dedicated to increasing the awareness, understanding, and appreciation of the humanities in Idaho. It accomplishes this by supporting educational programs for the general public and various target audiences. The Council plans and conducts projects on its own and in collaboration. Visit their website at www.idahohumanities.org. Address: David Pettyjohn, Executive Director, Idaho Humanities Council, 217 W. State St., Boise, ID 83702.

The Institute of Museum and Library Services provides funding to assist Let's Talk About it with operating expenses for administering the program.
