

Let's Talk About It – Program Scholar

Steve Barrett

steve.barrett@ishs.idaho.gov

334-2682

Idaho History Center

2205 Old Penitentiary Rd.

Boise, ID 83712

Dr. Steve Barrett is an archivist and family history and local records specialist of the Idaho State Historical Society. He is the immediate past president of the Idaho Genealogical Society, teaches American literature courses at Boise State University in addition to his duties at ISHS and previously taught writing courses at Miami University, Ohio; Florida State University and the University of New Hampshire. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in Creative Writing and a Ph.D. in American Literature and Rhetoric. He edits Mountain Light, newsletter of the ISHS, until recently editing the Idaho Genealogical Society Quarterly.