2015 Idaho Teen Video Challenge

Create a video promoting Summer Reading. You could win $150 and an award for your library.

State winners will be shared with libraries across the country.

Sponsored by the Idaho Commission for Libraries, Your Local Public Library, and the Collaborative Summer Library Program

For more information go to http://libraries.idaho.gov/Teen-Video-Challenge or www.cslpreads.org
Eligibility
The “2015 Teen Video Challenge” for Idaho is open only to legal U.S. residents who are residents of Idaho aged 13-18. Participants are ineligible if directly related to the panel of judges for the contest. By participating, entrants agree to be bound by these Contest Rules. Each participant or group may submit one video per entry. Each entry must include signed model release form(s). All submissions must be received by 5 p.m. on March 13, 2015. Late entries will not be accepted. A DVD of the video will be requested from the winner.

Terms and Conditions
All audio and artwork must be created by the entrant or be in the public domain and must be specified as such on the entry form. CSLP (and all CSLP member affiliates) have permission to use the “2015 Teen Video Challenge” submissions, including all work created and all intellectual property embodied therein, as per the Contest Release form.

Video Criteria for Acceptance
All videos must:
• Be 30 to 90 seconds.
• Promote the idea of using public libraries and reading.
• Include your interpretation of the 2015 CSLP teen slogan “Unmask.”
• Be designed for use at any library.
• Be appropriate for viewing by audiences of all ages.

Video will be judged on the following criteria
• Creativity
• Message clarity and relevance
• Motivation and inspiration
• Overall impact

Questions? Ask your local public librarian.
