

OCTOBER 29-30

SAVE THE DATE

AT THE BOISE STATE CAMPUS

CONFERENCE

BENEFITS & OPPORTUNITIES

- Attend internationally known poverty expert Dr. Donna Beegle's keynote and breakout session, and then leave laughing with Dr. Matthew Wappett's capnote about stress and laughter.
- Inspiring Idaho presenters who will address such topics as cultural competency, poverty, nutrition, inclusion, early literacy, and a variety of other topics.
- Vendors and information booths to keep you informed about products and services relevant to the early childhood field.
- Professional networking opportunities within the early childhood community through informal conversations and formal roundtable discussions.
- IDHW CEU credits, IdahoSTARS training credits, and BSU teaching credits are available.

Please check on facebook.com/EYIdaho for details and news about the conference. We'll be sending out more information about registration as it becomes available.