

Our entry invited everyone to take part in "Reading Challenges". Each week new challenges were made available. I have included a number of the challenges, however most deal with "digging". In our childrens' area a "community" rug was put down and the children were invited to build with legos including lego cars to drive in the community.

