Program Details

"Fun and Games!" - Celebrate the importance of family reading with an Idaho Family Reading Week event in your library or community. The official week is November 9 - 15 but events can take place anytime in November. Publicly-funded school and public libraries can register to receive materials to help support a Family Reading Week event. The first 100 libraries to register will receive paperback giveaway books related to the theme (limits apply - see below). Public-school library partnerships and collaboration are encouraged to avoid duplication of events and resources in your community.

All libraries, regardless of registration process, may utilize...

- The Idaho Family Reading Week themed artwork: poster/flyers, Facebook/website banners, letterhead, proclamation and press release templates;
- Themed activity videos - for two age groups - especially developed for Idaho Family Reading Week by Salmon Public Library (share links with parents and your patrons via your website, handouts or social media);
- Themed activity ideas/handouts, recommended reading lists, and parent handouts that support early literacy skills;

All resources can be found at: <https://libraries.idaho.gov/rtm/idaho-family-reading-week/>

I am aware of the themed video, artwork and activity idea handouts designed by ICfL staff specifically for Idaho Family Reading Week 2020 and that these materials are available for free download and use by all Idaho libraries, regardless of whether we register our event with ICfL.

- ☐ Yes, I am excited to utilize these resources for our FRW event! (and possibly other events)
- ☐ No, but I'll be sure to check them out soon!

Program Requirements

By applying for the Idaho Family Reading Week program, your library agrees to:

- host at least 1 family reading event by November 30, 2020; This year, due to the health pandemic, FRW events can be offered virtually, through curbside services, face-to-face in small groups or a combination of these delivery methods.
- include literacy-related activities and parent resources;
- promote library programming, early literacy resources and library cards for all families;
- submit a summary event report including numbers served, narrative responses and program/resource feedback by December 15, 2020.

Book Request Info - Important Please Read:

Libraries may receive some FRW-themed and some non-themed paperback books to use as giveaways for children/families who participate in their event. ICfL cannot keep up with the current demand for paperback books for this event and other literacy outreach events we support.

Last year for FRW, the 100 libraries who registered requested 15,000 in books for their events. ICfL was able to scrape together 12,000 books to send out. This year, we are planning on distributing a total of 10,000 books.

Therefore, the following limits have been placed on paperback book requests from public libraries for this year's FRW events:

Understanding that, most likely, we will not be able to provide a book for all the children you hope to serve at your event...Please limit your request to approx. 1 book per child (some extra cushion for wiggle room is fine) AND the following maximum based on your school size:

- School libraries in a school serving OVER 500 students – may request up to 150-200 books
- School libraries in a school serving 301-500 students – may request up to 100 books
- School libraries in a school serving 101-300 students – may request up to 75 books
- School libraries in a school serving less than 100 students – may request up to 50 books.

(NOTE: Depending on library request amount, the first 20-40 books provided by ICfL will be higher quality, themed books. The remainder of the books provided, will be non-themed Scholastic package sets and Scholastic Bonus Books.

Please complete the book request table below according to these limits. If you leave the book request table blank, it will tell me you don't want or don't need books for your FRW event from ICfL.

If you are searching for additional sources of discounted or free books, please review a list of possible sources compiled by ICfL staff, linked on the FRW page of our website, under "General Literacy Resources": <http://libraries.idaho.gov/landing/idaho-family-reading-week>

Book Request Table #1 - Paperback books (some themed/some Scholastic and Scholastic Bonus Books) to be used as giveaways to participating children and their caretakers. Partnering

Active partnerships are highly recommended and encouraged for participating libraries of this program. School libraries are strongly encouraged to partner with their local public library to offer this event. This year, that partnership may look different from the usual forms of partnership and collaboration. Perhaps your partner will help host your virtual event or help to promote your event to the children and families they work with. The FRW Summary Report at the end of the program will ask for a description and examples of any partnerships utilized to implement this program.

Are you partnering with a public library or other community agency to offer your Family Reading Week event:

- ☐ Yes
☐ No

If you answered Yes above, please enter the name of the public library or community partner.

Please describe the role/s of your partner for your Family Reading Week event/s:
