Job Description
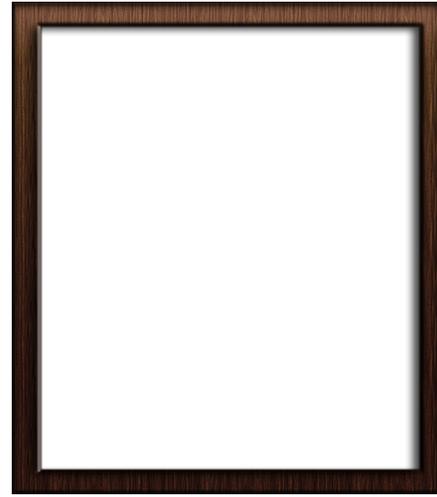

Blackout Poetry

Step 1: Grab a dark marker/ pen/ pencil

Step 2: Circle words or phrases you like

Step 3: Black out the rest of the page

Step 4: Share with a friend!

School librarians wear many hats during the day. Draw what one might look like!

_____ is excited to work in a library because …

_____ is excited to work in a library because …

_____ is excited to work in a library because …

Other duties as assigned.

in a positive manner. Represent the school district development. Assume responsibility for continuing professional growth and update equipment. Operate and maintain their highest potential. Operate and encourage students to set and maintain standards of classroom behavior and meet abilities. Communicate classroom rules and individual student needs, interests, and effective instruction program based on teachers in preparation and delivery of and starting their assignments. Assist locating prescribed instructional materials on student performance. Assist students in expectations. Provide immediate feedback Maintain high academic standards and facilitate book fairs held at the school. be discarded. Prepare, organize, and prepare list of missing items and items to library materials, supplies and technology, Stock shelves. Conduct annual inventory of Monitor and track attendance in the library

How do you read?

_____mostly reads:
- ☐ Print books
- ☐ eBooks
- ☐ Audiobooks
- ☐ Other _____

_____mostly reads:
- ☐ Print books
- ☐ eBooks
- ☐ Audiobooks
- ☐ Other _____

The best book-to-movie/ TV adaptation _____ has seen is:_____
_____

The best book-to-movie/ TV adaptation _____ has seen is:_____
_____

The best book-to-movie/ TV adaptation _____ has seen is:_____
_____

This zine was inspired by one made by Jamie Glass that was adapted from "Ice Breakers are awkward," by Alana Kumbier & Noah Decaf.

Find the inspiration at:
zinelibraries.info

Download this zine at:
libraries.idaho.gov/make-it

HELLO
MY NAME IS

The pronouns I use are: