

Let's Talk About It – Program Scholar

Kim Madsen Dill

208-732-6523

kmadsen@csi.edu

Professor of English

Department of English

College of Southern Idaho

315 Falls Avenue

Twin Falls, ID 83301

Kimberly Madsen Dill has taught writing and literature at the College of Southern Idaho since 2003. Along with teaching, Kim holds the Writing Program Administrator-elect position, and mentors dual credit English teachers across Idaho for C.S.I. Among the literature courses Kim teaches are Introduction to Literary Criticism, Survey of British Literature, and a war literature course. Kim holds bachelor's and master's degrees in English. She is completing a Ph.D. in English and the Teaching of English from Idaho State University. Her doctoral dissertation will analyze the authorial self-fashioning of Isabella Bird Bishop, a Scottish, Victorian travel writer, in her travel narratives, letters, and photographs. Kim enjoys many outdoor sports such as backpacking, cycling, fishing, and snow-shoeing. She especially loves running, as her dog Gus takes her out for early morning runs several mornings a week.