

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT

Statewide Sponsors

Idaho Commission for Libraries

The Idaho Commission for Libraries has coordinated Let's Talk About It since 1985 in partnership with the Idaho Humanities Council. The Commission provides project staff, administers the project funds, coordinates with libraries and scholars, and houses the Let's Talk About It book collection. <http://libraries.idaho.gov>

The Idaho Humanities Council is a private, non-profit organization dedicated to increasing the awareness, understanding, and appreciation of the humanities in Idaho. It accomplishes this by supporting educational programs for the general public and various target audiences. The Council plans and conducts projects on its own and in collaboration with other organizations. www.idahohumanities.org.

The Institute of Museum and Library Services provides funding (via the Idaho Commission for Libraries) to assist Let's Talk About it with operating expenses for administering the program.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

The National Endowment for the Humanities provides funding (via the Idaho Humanities Council) to assist Let's Talk About it with expenses related to program scholars, theme development, and collection maintenance.

The conclusions or opinions expressed by project participants do not necessarily reflect the views of the sponsoring organizations.