

WANT TO BUILD YOUR CREATIVE AGING SKILLSET?

Lifetime Arts' free professional development resources can connect you to a wealth of information, ideas, case studies, and tips to help launch your creative aging journey.

Creative Aging Foundations On Demand

This self-paced online course is designed for institutions and individuals seeking to learn more about participatory artmaking programming for older adults.

Inspired by content covered in Lifetime Arts transformational training, this course includes instructional videos and resources that provide a launching off point for learning about the different ways you can implement and sustain creative aging programs.

To access the course, scan the QR code or visit the website below:

www.beagefriendly.org

The Creative Aging Resource Library

The Creative Aging Resource is an expansive collection of articles, reports, case studies, toolkits, videos, and templates that can help you develop your expertise and make the case for creative aging programs.

Curated by Lifetime Arts, the site contains content we have created and content submitted by the public. Search for resources, and even submit your own!

To explore more, scan the QR code or visit the website below:

www.creativeagingresource.org

S.A.F.E. Planning Design Elements for Creative Aging Programs

Creative aging programming is distinct from other community-based learning in that it ensures that the needs of older adult learners are met, their art-making skills are developed, explored, and practiced, and community is built through the experience. Please refer to this resource as a guidepost when designing your own curriculum.

S

Skills

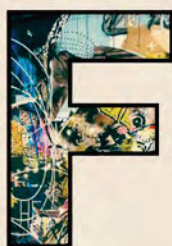

Schedule classes in a sequence and plan sessions to ensure one artmaking skill builds on the next

A

Assessment

Continually evaluate each student's process and progress, and tailor instruction to match the expressed needs of each learner

F

Feedback

Provide opportunities for students to talk about their work and the process of the artmaking and learning

E

Engage Socially

Tie intentional social engagement opportunities to the artmaking

