Sample Resources We Offer:

NNLM Reading Club & Book Club Kits

Community Engagement Network (CEN) Program Guides

The screenshot shows the NNLM website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'NIH NLM NNLM' and 'National Network of Libraries of Medicine'. Below it, a menu includes 'PNR HOME', 'About PNR', 'Members', 'Funding', 'Initiatives', and 'Training'. The main content area is titled 'September is Healthy Aging Month' and features a banner for the Pacific Northwest Region. Below the banner, there are book covers for 'WOMEN ROWING', 'Elderhood', and 'The SECRET DIARY OF HENDRIK GROEN, 83 1/4 Years Old'. A call-to-action says 'Select an NNLM Reading Club book'. A detailed view of 'The Secret Diary of Hendrik Groen' is shown, including a description of the book, a 'Book' section with a synopsis, and a 'Promotion' section with a 'Join Us for a Discussion of' button and social media links.

The screenshot shows the NNLM website interface for the Community Engagement Network (CEN). The navigation bar includes 'HOME', 'About Us', 'Resources', 'NNLM Reading Club', and 'National Health Observances'. A dropdown menu is open, showing options like 'Community Assessment', 'Community Engagement Toolkit', 'Programming', and 'Other Resources'. The main content area features a large banner with the text 'CE Kits! Need kits? Check out our Program'. Below the banner, there's a section titled 'Why this Program-in-a-Box?' with a yellow background. The text in this section reads: 'Each of us is unique. Our health is shaped by the interaction of our genes, our lifestyle and our environment. Ideally, when we go to the doctor, we hope to receive a correct medical diagnosis and a treatment plan that meets our unique needs. This specific approach to health care is called Precision Medicine. The All of Us Research Program from the National Institutes of Health is a Precision Medicine program. It's working to find unique answers to medical treatment and preventive care reflective of the rich diversity of different populations here in the United States in order to advance medical care for all of us.' Below this text, there's a 'BECAUSE HEALTH CARE ISN'T ONE SIZE FITS ALL.' section with a yellow background. At the bottom, there are logos for 'LIBRARIES TRANSFORM' and 'NIH U.S. National Library of Medicine'.
