

Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) LIBRARY SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGN 2023

Post #1 -- Facebook

Stories seem even better in the summer. And through audiobooks, those stories go wherever you do. Check out the library for audiobook options. And, if there's someone in your life who is blind or has low vision, they don't have to stop reading. The Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) is a free, convenient audiobook library service for Idahoans who qualify.

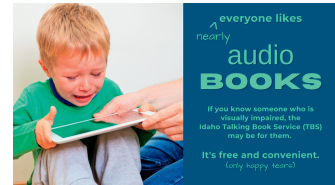

<https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>

Post #2 -- Facebook

Nearly everyone likes audiobooks – including those who are visually impaired. That's where the Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) comes in. TBS is an audiobook library service that is free and convenient – the audiobook cartridges are mailed to and from the patron's residence at no cost to them. Check out the library for more information or visit

<https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Post #3 -- Facebook

Who doesn't love to dive into a good book on a hot summer day? But maybe you have a family member or friend who has lost their sight and given up reading. They don't have to. The Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) is a free, convenient audiobook library service for Idahoans who are visually impaired or have another qualifying condition. Check out the library for more information or visit <https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Post #4 -- Facebook

Nearly everyone likes audiobooks – including those who are visually impaired. That's where the Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) comes in. TBS is an audiobook library service that is free and convenient – the audiobook cartridges are mailed to and from the patron's residence at no cost to them. Check out the library for more information or visit

<https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) LIBRARY SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGN 2023

Post #5 -- Facebook

Squeezing in a summer getaway? Don't forget your audiobooks – they're great for travel time. And maybe you have a friend or family member who has given up reading because of blindness or poor vision. They don't have to stop reading. Check out the Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS), which is a free, convenient audiobook library service for the visually impaired. For info, visit the library or <https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Post #6 -- Facebook

Audiobooks are great for lazy summer days. Maybe you have a family member who's blind or has low vision and has given up reading – they don't have to. Check out the library for info about the Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS), which is a free, convenient audiobook library service for the visually impaired. Or visit <https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Post #7 -- Facebook

Fun with the family often includes sharing audiobooks. But maybe someone in the family has given up reading due to vision loss. They don't have to stop reading. The Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) is a free, convenient audiobook library service for Idahoans who are blind, have low vision, or suffer from another qualifying condition. Check out the library for more info or visit <https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Post #8 -- Facebook

The Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) is available to Idahoans who are visually impaired or have another qualifying condition. TBS is a free audiobook library service that is convenient for patrons. The audiobook cartridges are mailed to and from the user's residence at no cost. Audiobook titles can also be downloaded. Check out the library for more info or visit <https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) LIBRARY SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGN 2023

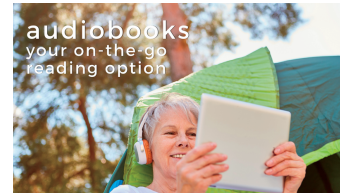

Post #9 -- Facebook

You enjoy audiobooks wherever you roam. And that's also true for those with a visual impairment. The Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) is a free, convenient audiobook library service for Idahoans who are blind, have low vision, or suffer from another qualifying condition. Check out the library for more info or visit <https://libraries.idaho.gov>.

Post #10 -- Facebook

Audiobooks are a great on-the-go reading option. Maybe there's someone in your life who has stopped reading due to vision loss. They don't have to. The Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) is a free, convenient audiobook library service for Idahoans who are visually impaired or suffer from some other qualifying condition. Check out the library for more info or visit <https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Post #11 -- Facebook

The Idaho Talking Book (TBS) comes to you – delivering audiobooks on cartridge right to your residence. And sending the audiobooks back is as easy as turning the mailing card over. Never stop reading. TBS delivers. Check out the library for more info or visit <https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

Post #12 -- Facebook

Do you have someone in your life who's stopped reading due to vision loss? If so, they don't have to give up reading. The Idaho Talking Book Service (TBS) is a free, convenient audiobook library service for Idahoans who are visually impaired or suffer from another qualifying condition. Check out the library for more or visit <https://libraries.idaho.gov/tbs>.

